Garden Club News

Greetings fellow gardeners!

May is here! By the end of the month we can guarantee the frosts are over for 2018. The greenhouses are overflowing. The smells of fresh-dug earth and fresh-cut grass are beckoning us outside after our long, cold winter. Don't you just want to let some dirt crumble between your fingers? We do!

Our April meeting was an enjoyable trip to Brenneis Greenhouses across 167th Avenue from Evergreen. Members were amazed at the rows upon rows of tiny seedlings getting ready for the spring rush. Every little seedling was so healthy and strong. A big thank you to Brenneis for the special tour. We'll be back soon! We also wish to give a warm welcome to Charlene, who is stepping up to take on the important role of Special Events Coordinator. We're pleased to have her on the board.

On Tuesday, May 8th at 6:30 pm, members are asked to meet at Kuhlmann's Greenhouse for our annual container planting evening. Thanks to Kuhlmann's and the Evergreen Garden Club, refreshments, plants and dirt will all be taken care of. All you need to bring is a pot that is less than 18" across, from dirt edge to dirt edge.

Our Garden Club meeting will be May 21st at 6:30pm at the Community Hall. Members will be doing some planning for the Spring Fling, and therefore our huge Plant Sale, which is coming up right away. Wait for your reminder call from the Garden Club for more details.

Keep some room in your garden and keep some green in your pocket. The absolutely huge Garden Club Plant Sale is happening once again at the Evergreen Spring Fling. Every year we get annuals donated to us from local greenhouses and we pass them on to you at low prices. We split up dozens of our own perennials and sell those, too. Look for garden crafts created or donated by Garden Club members amongst all the greenery. There will even be raffle tickets available for those feeling lucky. These funds help keep our club in business and we appreciate the community being so generous every year.

For more information call or text Cori at 780-860-3582 or email Margaret at verhagenma@gmail.com.

Join the Club, share a few laughs, meet new friends, and go home feeling good.
